ANULARIS AT A GLANCE

Anularis® is the sports commemorative ring created to celebrate a particular event and to symbolize one's belonging to the team.

Each of our rings is personalized and tells the meaning and the history of each Club. Its intrinsic value goes well beyond the materials and metals used.

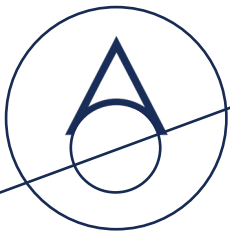

Its sustainable packaging is another Made in Italy design products. Its own NFC Tag communicates the warranty certificate, the name of the person who has received it, and other additional information.

The Anularis project is not only aimed at clubs and sportspeople, but also offers involvement and visibility to partners.

Anularis offers a 7-year warranty on its rings.

RING DESCRIPTION

Anularis® dedicates a luxury commemorative ring
to the world of virtual sports,
in particular, to the champions
of the finals of the Italian eBasket League,
the eSports Championship on NBA2K25.

The ring is an expression of design and craftsmanship made in Italy, elegant and essential in its lines but at the same time refined and refined.

A 925‰ silver ring with a cubic shape with the logos of the event, eBasket, FIP and LBA, inserted on the four sides together with the date and place of the finals.

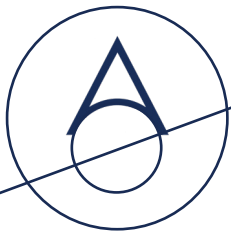

A ring made unique by the bright colors of the enamels, pink and blue, and by a small brilliant-cut diamond that embellishes the side of the ring with the eBasket logo.

Inside it has engravings: the inscription “Campioni d’Italia NBA2K25”, the stylized design of the basketball and the letter A of Anularis®. The internal incisions and bevelled corner excavations are highlighted by a galvanic treatment of black rhodium.

Every detail is designed to give value to a jewelry dedicated to Sport.
