HOST
CITY:

RIGA

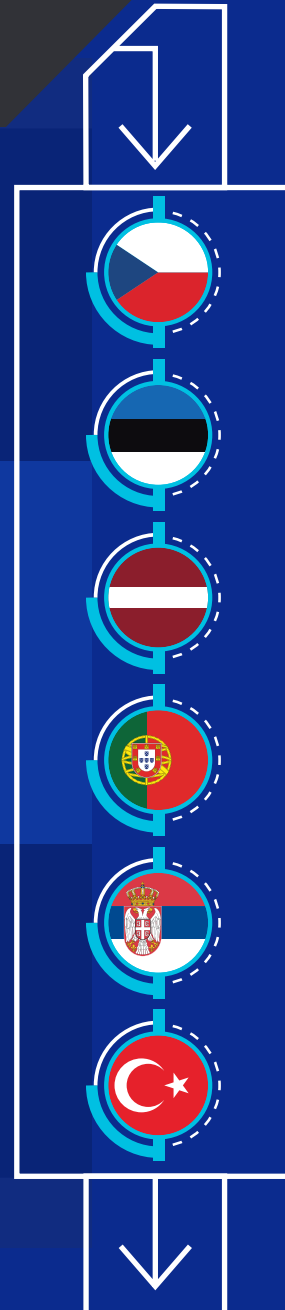

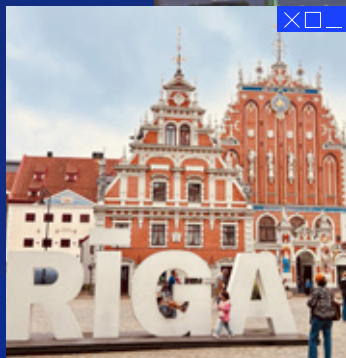

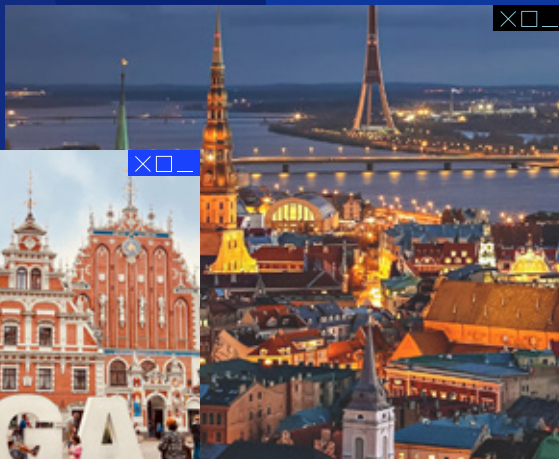

FIBA EuroBasket returns to Latvia, with Riga set to host Group A and Final Phase games at Arena Riga.

The capital and largest city of Latvia, Riga has a strong basketball tradition, as it is home to VEF Riga, currently on a streak of seven consecutive titles in the Latvian basketball league, and also to TTT Riga, the winningest club in Latvian Women's basketball history.

It's no surprise, then, that Riga has become a familiar home for major basketball events in recent years. The city previously hosted EuroBasket in 2015 and has welcomed several high-profile FIBA competitions—including the FIBA U19 Basketball World Cup in both 2011 and 2021, as well as the FIBA Women's EuroBasket in 2019.

This year, Arena Riga will once again take center stage. With a capacity of 11,200, the modern venue is one of the top basketball arenas in the region and will serve as the main stage for the tournament's most anticipated matchups.

FIBA EuroBasket returns to Finland for the first time since 2017, with the city of Tampere stepping into the spotlight for the first time in nearly six decades.

Located in southern Finland between two large lakes—Nasijarvi and Pyhajaavi—Tampere is the country's third-largest city and has a central role in Finland's industry, culture, and education.

The city has a strong basketball tradition, being home to one of the most storied teams in Finnish basketball, Pyrinto, and recently hosted the FIBA U18 EuroBasket 2024.

This year, Group B games will be held at Tampere Deck Arena. With a capacity of 13,455, the modern arena opened its doors in 2021 and will offer a world-class stage for fans and teams alike during FIBA EuroBasket 2025.

LIMASSOL

FIBA EuroBasket will make its debut in Cyprus, with the coastal city of Limassol hosting the tournament for the very first time.

Located on the southern coast of the island, Limassol is Cyprus' second-largest city and a major Mediterranean destination, known for its mix of ancient history and modern lifestyle. From centuries-old castles to vibrant marinas and beachfront promenades, Limassol blends cultural heritage with contemporary charm.

This marks a historic moment for Cypriot basketball, as it will be the first time the country hosts a major FIBA event. The city will welcome teams and fans to Spyros Kyprianou Arena, the largest indoor sports venue in Cyprus. With a capacity of 8,000, the arena is set to provide an electric atmosphere for Group C matchups.

 KATOWICE

FIBA EuroBasket returns to Poland for the first time since 2009, with Katowice set to host Group D games.

Located in southern Poland, Katowice is the capital of the Silesian region and has been a center for economic activity, education, and professional services in the area, nearly since its establishment in the 19th century.

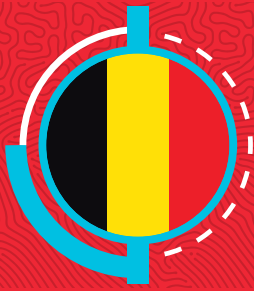

Katowice has long played a key role in Poland's basketball landscape and is no stranger to major international competitions, having been one of the host cities of FIBA EuroBasket 2009. This summer, it will welcome Europe's top teams to Spodek Arena, a landmark venue with a capacity of 11,500. Famous for its distinctive flying saucer design, Spodek has hosted numerous high-level sporting and cultural events since opening in 1971.

WI-FI – IMPORTANT NOTE

To provide the best possible experience for the vast majority of our guests, Wi-Fi at the event will be operating exclusively on the 5GHz band. The 2.4GHz network will be disabled to reduce congestion and improve performance.

If you're unsure whether your device supports 5GHz, we recommend checking in advance to avoid any surprises. We appreciate your understanding as we prioritize a faster and more reliable connection for the majority of attendees.
